FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

SATURDAY'S MARKET. A Marked Change in the Character of the Operations. New York, Sept. 16 -The week in New York, Sept. 16—The week in the stock market terminated in much the same way that it opened—a fer-ment of speculation—sales in the two-hour session aggregating almost 800,— 00 shares, equivalent to a full day of

There was a marked changed in the character of the operations, however, interest converging almost entirely about the railway division, in which extreme gains of 1 to almost 2 points were fairly numerous. Except for U. S. Steel, which continued its upward of the power to the new record of 108 incareer to the new record of 108, in dustrials, equipments and munitions were in comparatively light demand although Driggs-Seabury gained an additional 7 points.

A distinctly irregular undertone was denoted by the favorites of the early week, and it was suggested that the upward movement in investment issues was being used as a cloak to unload the more mercurial stocks.

There were moderate reversals in Mercantile Marines, American Smelt-ing, the Mexicans, Studebaker and Baldwin Locomotive, but Maxwell rose 3 1-2 points. Reading was the only important railway issue to hang back, but that stock had a smart gain ear-Her in the week, when it made its new
